brother named Will and a sister named Lottie.

Perey Township Municipal offices do not have any death registers before 1896 so I can't find anything about Nicholas. At the time my grandmother was born (she died in 1941 3 years before my birth) her father would have been 75 yrs of age and her mother 38! I believe he died soon after and my great grandmother had to give her children up because of her poor health and probably poverty!

Thanks for any help you can give me.

O'Neil--Cronk Nov. 18 | 33

A wedding of much interest to the residents of Odessa was solemnized in Kingston on Saturday when Miss Hazel Cronk of Verona became the wife of Clarence O'Neil, son of John O'Neil and the late Mrs. O'Neil. The groom is a guard at Portsmouth Penitentiary and they will reside in Odessa.

Several from Odessa attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Harvey Sharpe, which took place on Sunday afternoon from her late residence at Violet. The deceased was well known in this village and her friends were sorry to learn of her tragic death.

mat showed that an understanding had been reached on propaganda, the right of religious freedom for United States citizens in Russia; civil rights of American nationals and some claims.

An agreement also was reached for a "consular convention" between the two countries in which the United States is to be assured that its citizens will have all the rights that are granted to the nationals of other states under existing treaties with the Soviet. The convention will deal specifically with the rights of consuls of the United States and Russia.

Deaths and Funerals

MRS. LOUISA CRONK

There passed away at the home of her son, Rev. Keith Cronk,
Port Hope, on Friday evening, April 10, 1953, an old and respected resident of Mountain Grove, Mrs.
Louisa Cronk. She had been in failing health for some time and on the Tuesday before her death she had gone to her son's home.

Her husband, the late David John Cronk, predeceased her three months ago.

Mrs. Cronk was in her 72nd year and before her marriage to David John Cronk was the former Louisa Thompson, daughter of the late George Thompson and Sophia Stinchcombe.

Born in Alden township she had spent her life there and was a lifelong member of the United Church and the Women's Association. She took part in many church activities while her health permitted.

She is survived by two sons, Arnold at home and Rev. Cronk and two grandchildren, of Port Hope; three sisters, Mrs. Edward Godfrey (Susan) Mountain Grove; Mrs. Jessie Howes, Parham, and Mrs. Martha Cronk, Long Lake and one brother, Leamon, of Mountain Grove.

Funeral service was held from her late residence to the United Church, Mountain Grove, with Rev. A. H. McCuaig officiating.

Pall-bearers were Clifford Johnston, Robert Stinchcombe, John Price, Orey Loyst, Amos Hughes and Gordon Thompson.

Ladies of the WA joined in a body in the church of which Mrs.
Cronk was a member.

Friends attended from Port Hope, Moscow, Parham, Long Lake and Arden.
